MLA: Newspaper Article from an Online Source

Example #1:

Explanation of Formatting
Include information in the following order:

Author
- List the author’s last name and follow it with a comma.
- Then provide the author’s first name.
- If the author’s middle name is included, this should be placed after the first name.
- If the author uses initials instead of their first and/or middle name, include those instead.
- End the entry with a period.

Title
- Provide the title of the article in quotations.
- Capitalize the first letter in every word, excluding articles (a, an), coordinate conjunctions/fanboys (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so), and prepositions (with, without, to, from, on, at, around, after, along, etc.).
- If the title has a subtitle, include a colon after the main title, then include the full subtitle.
- End the title with a period inside the quotations.

Source
- List the name of the source in italics, capitalizing as appropriate.
- End the entry with a comma.

Sponsor
- List the sponsor of the source, ending the entry with a comma.

Date
- Provide the date the article was published in day month year format.
- Ensure the month is shortened to three letters, ending the abbreviation with a period.
- End the entry with a comma.

Location
- Provide the URL of the article. You may omit “http://” from the URL.
- End the citation with a period.
