MLA: Newspaper Article from a Print Source

Example:

Explanation of Formatting
Include information in the following order:

Author
- List the author’s last name, followed by a comma.
- Then list the author’s first name.
- If the author uses a middle name, it should be located directly after the first name.
- If the author uses initials instead of a first and/or last name, include those instead.
- Ensure any initials are followed with a period.
- End the entry with a period.

Title
- Place the title of the article in quotations.
- Capitalize the first letter of every word, excluding articles (a, an), prepositions (after, on, with, without, etc.) and coordinating conjunctions/fanboys (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so).
- End the entry with a period inside the quotations.

Source
- In italics, provide the name of the source, capitalizing as appropriate.
- End the entry with a comma.

Date
- Provide the date the article was published in day month year format.
- Ensure the month is shortened to just three letters, with a period ending the abbreviated month.
- End the entry with a comma.

- List the page(s) where the article was found. If the article is on only one page, write the location out as p. #. If the article is found on multiple pages, write the entry as pp. #+
- End the entry with a period.
