MLA: Book, Edition Other Than the First

Example: Two Authors

Example: With Other Contributors

Explanation of Formatting
Include information in the following order:

Author(s)
- List the author(s) in Last name, First name format. Ensure the first and last name are separated by a comma.
- If the book provides a middle name, list it after the first name with no comma to separate the two.
- If the author uses initials in place of a first and/or middle name, list those instead.
- For two authors, place a comma after the first editor and proceed to list the 2nd editor’s name is first name last name order with no commas separating the two parts.
- For more than two editors, list “et al.” after the first editor. Ensure a comma is placed between the first editor and et al.

Title
- List the title in italics. End the entry with a period.

Other Contributors
- Identify the type of contribution using words like “edited by,” “illustrated by,” or “performances by,” capitalizing the first word if it comes after a period.
- Include the contributor name(s) in the normal order. If there are two authors, put the word “and” between the two names. If there are more than two contributors, use the first contributor’s name and add “et al.” to it.
- End with a comma.

Edition
- Use a figure and the number’s ordinal ending. Do not spell out the number.
- Abbreviate the edition as “ed.” without forgetting the period.
- End the entry with a comma.

Publisher
- List the publisher, capitalizing as appropriate.
- End the entry with a comma.

Year
- List the year in which the anthology was published. This can be seen as the latest copyright.
- End the entry with a period.
